operation, and many lose their lives because they fear their case is incurable. There are others, women in particular, who from feelings of delicacy carry their secret with them to untimely graves rather than make their condition known to a physician whose reputation of-cure. There are many happy women and children to-day who came to me suffering from some form of rupture. They will tell you that my treatment is humane and painless, and that my cures are absolute, without the use of the knife. My patients come from every station in life, and I should be glad to refer to any of them for your satisfaction before placing your case in my hands. I assert that I can positively cure you. W. M. Knox Explores Tres Marias

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. San Francisco, June 20 .- W. M. Knox of this city claims that the richest guano deposit on this coast exists on the Tres Marias Islands, off the Coast of Mexico, Knox has arrived here from Mexico on the steamer Costa Rica, and tells of the experiences he underwent in trying to reach the islands. He embarked from San Blas in an 18foot boat, accompanied by four Mexicans. The Tres Marias lie sixty miles off the coast, but it took Knox six days to the coast, but it took knox six days to reach the island in his small craft. The beavy surf prevented the boat from making a landing, and knox, with one companion, plunged overboard and swam to the shore. "I never saw such a sight in my life," said knox, in speaking of the Island, "The place teams with birds, and every step I took I trod on them. The Island is very rich in guano. I remained on the Tres Marias for two weeks and explored them thoras for two weeks and explored them thoras."

Among those who have just left for the Northern river are Captain John W. McCann of La Crosse, who pilots the steamer Sarah, the largest on the Yukon; Captain M. M. He was born and raised in La Crosse, and was for years mate on the Kit Carson, one of the Mactionald fleet of ratters. He went to Alaska five years ago and has since been employed on that river. During all this time he has never had the slightest mishap.

Then one evening as did not return for two days. He was broke over the building flash, followed almost instantly by a peal of thunder. The concassion was so great that it caused the window pares to shirer. The flame of blue and purple preceding the thunder clap lighted up the interior of the building with a ghostly glow. rias for two weeks and explored them thor-oughly, and I believe the richest guano fields in the world exist there."

Away down South is where the average man puts in his time waiting for nature to provide him with food and clothes. There is one word in their language which has worked overtime. This is Manana. It means to-morrow. It used to be used in St. Louis a great deal more than it is to-day. "I will look into it to-morrow" has now become a back number in this City. We have come to realize that to-morrow never comes. The great spirit of progress and energy and enterprise that is waking up here in St. Louis means that this City is going to become the great Metropolis of the West.

In no other Guy of its size in the country can land, as favorably situated as the land of the University Heights Company, be purchased for less than $350.00 to $500.00 per front foot. Within 25 minutes by street car line of the center of the business district, right in line with the growth of the mest residence property in the city, adjoined on the southeast by the great tract of the Parkylew Regity Company, which is being laid out into magnificent residence streets at a cost of $85.00 per front foot, with every car line running West coming up to the corner of the land, with the great new fundings of the Washington University, costing millions of dollars, discounted the great form and the great from us this great from us this great from us this great from us this great. recty to the South but a few hundred feet, with residences costing over $100,000.00 already bulb across the street from us, this great tract of land offers the fluest real estate investment in the city of St. Louis to day, and yet, with all our improvements, streets, grading, sidewalks, sewers, water and gas complete, the total property is pledged, by our plan, to the preferred stockholder free of incumbrance and without indebtedness at a valuation of $13.00 per front foot.

This tract. S5 acres hisble, we purchased last fall and morigaged it for $200,000,000 with a St. Louis bank. We then offered to the public of St. Louis, $200,000,00 of preferred stock, which is a first lien on the entire property. $200,000,00 of this money is to be used to retire the mortgage, so that the preferred stock is the only lien on the land. The remaining $100,000,00 is to be spent in permanent improvements, streets, sidewalks, sewers, &c., on the land itself, which is the collateral for the preferred stock. With this preferred stock, we offer a bonus of 25 per cent of the common stock, so that if you layest $100,000 in the preferred stock, which is a first lien on the land, you first receive your money back with interest at the rate of 6 per cent and then you share in the profits of the enterprise until the last foot of land is sold. of the enterprise until the last foot of land is sold.

A very large number of people in St. Louis immediately looked into the matter carefully, made proper investigations and invested their money in this preferred stock. Among this number were many of the best people in the city-careful, cautious, shrewd in-

We have already retired part of the mortgage and the great work of grading and laying the sewers is now rapidly nearing completion and is being paid for in cash as it is done.

We have contracted for the building of two great World's Fair hotels with a capacity of 3000 guests without our having to invest a dollar in them, but receive for the use of the land a large royalty, which should be sufficient to pay 100 per cent on the entire preferred stock. The magnificent building of the Weman's Magnitine is now rapidly being built on the Southeast corner. Nine fine residences are waiting for the building lines and then will be immediately creeted.

Airendy those who invested in the preferred stock will receive their first semiannual dividend July 1st. Almost before you know Already those who invested in the prepried stock will be complete and the finest private residence place in St. Louis, if not in this country, will have become an accomplished fact. Private streets a little to the cast of us had their land at a valuation of $200,00 per front foot. The basis complished fact. Private streets a little to the east of us not their isnutial a valuation of $250.00 per front foot. The basis of your security is $13.00 per front foot. All over that is pull to you and to us as a profit. You do not have to depend on selling some little building lot for your profits, but any lot in the entire estate or any source of revenue derived from the entire estate pass you a dividend. Every street car line enaming west comes up to our door at a 5-cent fare. Already we are being approached for leases on parts of our great tract to be used during the Pair for special purposes, to be restored to us immediately after the Fair. The taking over of the Parkview Realty land by the World's Pair Concomp leaves our great and beautiful tract almost the only available to have the propriet of the purposes. land for such purposes. A magnificent low-foot boulevard is soon to be constructed the entire length of our south line running out into the

We predict this fall the demand for building lots in this superb residence place will be greater than any three combined residence

We predict this fall the demand for building lots in this supern residence place will be greater than any incree combined residence sites in the city, owing to the restrictions placed by us on the buildings and the maintaining of our entire estate as a great private park, which makes it the most desirable place to live in the city. We believe that within a year the investor in the preferred stock will have received all of his money back with 6 per cent interest, and v i be sharing with us in a regular monthly division of the profits.

If we sell our land at $85,00 a front foot, the valuation at which the land across the street from us is bonded, our profit would be over two millions of dollars. We ask the most careful investigation; we ask you to go out on the Delmar, Olive, Page or Suburban Car to Delmar Garden and then walk 20 feer west and examine this beautiful tract. Go up on it and then look over the entire residence district of $1. Louis, the highest point of land in the West. See the improvements that are being made and paid for in cash and then come and see us, and let go into the matter with you. There are many things that we would like to tell you of our plans which we do not wish to make public at the present time. do not wish to make public at the present time.

There is not very much of this preferred stock left and if you fall back into the old habit and think that Manana will do, some day soon you will be looking in at the beautiful private entrances to this place, realizing that you have lost the opportunity of your life, A great bank is your trustee and handles your money, and sees to it that every penny of it is used only for the purposes set forth in our agreement. We pay all taxes and interest and advertising bills, and we do not receive one penny of our money back or one penny of income of any sort until after all of your money has been paid back to you with interest. Then we all share alike. The security is beyoud question. The enormous value of the property is readily ascertained and the enormous profits that will be made in this enter-prise is one of the surest things in the business world in St. Louis to-day.

TEDDY, A WELL-TRAINED DOG. The spaniel is owned by Teddy McKenca.

Teddy, a wanderful dog, said to be the best educated canine in the world, is visiting St. Louis.

Teddy is a little brown dog, 7 years old, and he is the wise Solomon of the dog kingdom. He can do almost anything—can almost talk, in fact—and the 590 marvelous tricks that he performs earns money for his owner and wins for the dog a warm spot in the hearts of those who witness his performances.

The dog shows an almost human instinct, and some of the things he does are almost beyond belief.

Teddy has been all over the world with his owner, Teddy McKenna, formerly of McKenna, formerly of McKenna, formerly of der.

His owner says that he will give the dog to any one who can produce a more intelligent canine, and the dog would be the best reward that Theodore McKenna could possibly offer. This is the verdict, at least, of those who have seen Teddy. Jr., perform.

Teddy obeys only the call of his master. Others might talk themselves hoarse without getting a response from the claver dog. But when Teddy McKenna rays the word. Teddy. Jr., pricks his ears and does what his master orders.

"Sit up and smile," says the master.

And the dog raises himself on his haunch-

The dog rolls over on his side, his muscles become rigid, and he throws his feet in the air. Then he shuts his eyes and he is a dead dog.

Of course, he would rather die than be a city official.

During this experiment another interesting test is made.

McKenna asks members of the audience to tell the dog to awake. Each member of the audience tries it, but the dog's eyes remain closed and he doesn't move.
